"Strategies to Improve Learning Motivation" Parents Online Seminar

Jan 08, 2021

Dear Parents,

Keeping children motivated is of great importance to their learning and growth. Under the epidemic situation, students have increased their time to study at home, and how to improve their learning motivation effectively is a very important issue. Our school will cooperate with the Hong Kong Christian Service to hold parent seminars for parents of our school. Details are as follows:

Date:	Jan 23, 2021 (Sat)
Time:	9 : 00am - 10 : 30am
Topic:	"Strategies to Improve Learning Motivation" Parents Seminar
Activities:	1. The importance of learning motivation for children's learning and growth 2. Ways to improve children's learning motivation 3. Matters needing attention when improving children's learning motivation 4. Q&A session
Audience:	All parents
Social Worker:	Ms HY Kwan (Senior Registered Social Worker of Hong Kong Christian Service)
Media:	Online seminar (video software, Zoom)
Deadline:	Jan 21 (Thu)

Participants need to use your own mobile phones or computers with internet access to participate in the activity; our school social worker will provide participants with instructions for downloading and using Zoom. Successful applicants will receive the Zoom link of the seminar via WhatsApp the day before the seminar.

If you have any enquiries about the seminar, please call the school at 25358493 or the organization 23894242 to contact Miss Mak, our school social worker.
